NEWS OF THE CITY.

THE LAST DOG DAY.

The owners of dogs are hereby notified that the slaughter of Cairo canines will be deferred until the morning of the second of June. No further call will be made for the taxes due. On the contrary, on Thursday morning I shall shoot down every dog I find, upon which taxes have not been paid, without reference to sex, size, kind or color. Come up then and pay your dog tax and save your dogs.

M. B. BARKER, City Marshal.

THE ATHENEUM TO-NIGHT.

The indications are that the celebrated Berger family will call out a full house this evening, rain or no rain. The members are unquestionably the most talented bell ringers in the United States. It was the Berger family that gave reputation and fortune to the Peaks. But turn out to-night and judge of their excellence for yourself. Sol Smith Russell will be there, and is, of himself, a concert, circus and a star.

A CHURCH SERVICE AT VILLA RIDGE.

The rain last night and to-day, will probably delay the proposed picnic and strawberry festival at Villa Ridge, fixed for to-day.

The church members of that locality are anxious to provide for the erection of a house of worship. The Episcopalians have taken the lead in the matter, with the understanding, however, that the building shall be held subject to the use of all Protestant denominations. We should be pleased to see the effort succeed.

THE CUBIC MICROSCOPE.

This microscope is simplified and adapted to popular as well as scientific use. A new optical wonder! It is the only instrument of high power which requires no focal adjustment, and therefore can be readily used by every one, even by children. Costing only Two Dollars and Seventy-five Cents, by mail, post paid, it is within the reach of all in the community, and should be on the table of every Practitioner. Read advertisement in this paper.

AGAIN TO-NIGHT.

The strawberry festival, in Blum's hall, will be continued this evening. An abundance of fresh berries and delicious ice cream, lemonade, cake, fruits, etc., will be found on sale, and made still more palatable by the kindly greeting the good-looking vendors will extend to their customers. Go.

THE KIND OF WOOD EVERY BODY WANTS.
Mr. F. M. Ward will hereafter keep a full supply of splendid hickory stove wood, cut and split ready for use. Price $5.00 for a full cord of 128 feet. Citizens buying this stove wood not only get the best article, but save about one dollar per cord in the price. Leave your orders at Hulm's old stand or the postoffice. June 1st.

CITY BUTTON LOST.

A gold cuff button, set with four blue stones, one of which is missing. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at the BULLETIN office. 21

KEYS FOUND.

A steel ring, containing nine iron keys—among the number a clock key—was picked up in the streets and left at the BULLETIN office. The owner can recover the same by paying for this notice.

DIED.

In Unity, Illinois, June 1st Caroline, daughter of Judge A. C. Hodges and wife, in the 15th year of her age. Her disease is said to have been inflammatory rheumatism.

FLOUR.

300 lbs. Flour medium grade, also 200 lbs. medium quality suitable for the Southern trade for sale at the Egyptian Mills. 11

Cool, airy and splendidly ventilated rooms, can be had at the Saint Charles, with board, during the hot summer months, at very low prices. Families can be accommodated during the above period, with our most desirable rooms, at a large deduction from regular rates. 11

—The regular weekly sales of tobacco at the Planter's and Ballard Tobacco warehouses will take place to-morrow. A large amount of the "weed" has already been entered for sale, and more is coming.

—W. W. Thornton, No. 121 Thornton's block, Tenth street, has just received three hundred boxes of glass, varying in size from $1.00 to $3.00. For sale, wholesale or retail. 11

THE BEST AND CHEAPEST CLOTHING to be found in this CITY is at ISAAC WALDER'S, corner of 6TH STREET & OHIO LEVEE.

He shows his goods with pleasure, and never lets his patrons go dissatisfied. CALL ON HIM if you want a bargain. 11

—For a shave, hair-cut or shampoo, or if you want your hair and whiskers dyed to your own satisfaction, call at J. Geo. Steinhausen's shop, corner Eighth street and Commercial avenue, (Perry House), June 1st.

—Ladies' and children's hair cut to order, at the shop or their residence. Leave orders at the shop of J. Geo. Steinhausen, June 1st.

A petition is in circulation, the object of which is the removal of Col. Graham from the post-office, and the substitution of Col. McKee in his place.

—You will greatly "miss it" if you don't buy the Star Shirt at John Antrim's, No. 73, Ohio Levee.

EVERYTHING.

FACTS FOR FARMERS, GARDENERS, ORCHARDISTS AND THE REST OF MANKIND TO BEAR IN MIND.

We have had frequent occasion to refer to the house of W. M. Davidson, 180, Commercial avenue; but nothing that can be said through newspaper columns can convey to the reader an adequate idea of the extent and completeness of his establishment as an agricultural implement and seed warehouse and farmers' supply store. When we say it contains all the articles used by the farmer, gardener and poultry-ologist, from a four-horse wagon to a sucking needle, the expression, sweeping as it is, fails to embrace a tithe of the articles—useful, curious, ornamental and indispensable—always to be found in his store. The truth is, Mr. Davidson has narrowly watched the wants of the agricultural interests of the country, and noted down all new demands, that he might provide for them. The result is, a collection of goods, the like of which can be found in no other single establishment in the United States.

We find him supplied with wagons of the best and most popular make; hand carts and wheelbarrows, Brown's Illinois corn planters; the Champion reaper; plows; stump extractors; fanning mills; corn shellers; feed mills; corn and cob crushers; wheat drills; walking and riding cultivators; sulky hay rakes; Victor cane mills and evaporators; scythes and cradles; hoes and rakes; hay and manure forks; shovels, spades and scoops; trace, log, halter and other chains; hand-saw, mill-saw, rail-saw and other files; axes; hatchets and hammers; cross-cut, hand and circular saws; pumps and pump stands; wolf and rat traps; cow, hand, alarm, door and other bells; saddlery and harness of all kinds; rubber and leather belting; nails, horse-shoes, edge tools and builders' hardware, hollow-ware; stoves; wooden-ware and wire goods; washing machines and clothes wringers; paint mills and sausage grinders; refrigerators and water coolers; all kinds of seeds in season, and fully ten thousand other articles, hundreds of which are new and useful, and to be found nowhere else in Cairo. Do you want something nice in the way of a broiler, egg-beater, ice-pick, lemon-squeezer, iron stand or foot warmer? Then go to Davidson's. Do you want the multitude of articles so essential to the completeness of every home, and the comfort and convenience of the good housewife? Go to Davidson's. Do you want those improvements in farm machinery that will lessen your labor and perform your work in the best possible manner? Then go to Davidson's. Do you want the hundred and one little ornaments and contrivances that make home attractive—the vulcanized wire hanging baskets; plain, or fancy bird cages; flowers and flower stands, etc., etc? Go to Davidson's. Do you want, in all these, unquestionable bargains—the largest supply of goods for the smallest amount of money? Then go to Davidson's. We may not have enumerated the article you want, but go to Davidson's and you will find it. What he has not on hand, that pertains to his line of business, has either fallen into disuse, or is "contraband" of the laws of trade. He has studied the peculiar necessities of the people, and has been singularly successful in providing for them. The completeness of that provision; the extraordinary variety it presents, and the zeal with which he devotes himself to its maintenance, are worthy of this extended mention, and commend him to the tillers of the soil, and the public generally, as the very man who keeps quite everything that everybody does, and quite everything that everybody else does not. His stock, so extensive and varied; his low prices; his upright manner of dealing; and his obliging disposition, commend him further, as an individual, who especially deserves the patronage of all who make Cairo their market, and want goods in his line of business. No 180, sign of the "Golden Plow," on Commercial avenue, is his place of business. Go there, and supply yourselves.

THE EMERSON MINSTRELS.
(From the Memphis Appeal.)
The advent of Emerson drew a large audience, and fever miasms in the ascendant, it was last night. Peel after peel of laughter rewarded some pun, joke or clever trick. The company, the brass band are all good. The dance men (the brothers Reynolds) are capital; what they do is fresh, lively and well executed. Harry Casland was really excellent in his lively Moke act. But what shall be said Billy Emerson himself? He is certainly the admirable Criticism of negro minstrel; he is a night's entertainment in himself, and a good one, too, and assisted as he is by such a talented company, he ought to fill our little theater every night during his stay.

This excellent troupe will open in the Athenaeum, in this city, for two nights only, to-morrow evening.

INQUIRE WITHIN.
The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white features, you will exclaim at once: "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like fragrant Soudant.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL TO-NIGHT.
Blum's hall, 134 Commercial avenue will present a gay and happy scene to-night. The ladies of the Presbyterian church offer the public a rare treat—the first of the season, in the way of a splendid strawberry supper. Go. Look on. Take part.

—Peauquer, French crepe chincoit suits are made to order, with taste, and a perfect fit, or no sale, at Antrim's.

SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, ETC.

GRAND REDUCTION IN PRICES.

Mr. W. W. Thornton is the only dealer in sash, doors, blinds, etc., in the city of Cairo, and maintains a stock that is always found equal to the demands of the country. He enjoys, through his arrangements with the leading manufacturing houses of the Northwest, facilities that insure him not only the best quality of goods, but prompt supplies, and extraordinary advantages in prices. For many months he has been selling articles in his line, at the Chicago scale of prices, thus rendering Cairo the successful rival of that excellent market, in sash, doors, blinds, mouldings, balusters, newel posts, etc; and giving the fullest satisfaction to the numerous patrons of his house. He has been governed by a determination to permit his customers to share in all the advantages accorded to him, declining to avail himself of the absence of opposition, to put up his prices, (as too many dealers do) and thus increase his profits. An evidence of this we may see in this: He has just secured a reduction in the scale of prices under which he receives supplies, equivalent to ten per cent. upon the general run of his stock. He might maintain his present prices, which are entirely satisfactory to his patrons, and pocket the reduction as profits; but desiring to add to the attractions of the Cairo market as much as he may, and to insure his patrons that they shall be honestly and conscientiously dealt by, he, to-day, announces a corresponding decline in his own scale of prices—equal as we have said to ten per cent. upon his stock as a whole.

The mere announcement of this fact is enough. We are sure the public will appreciate it, and receive from it the assurance that, whatever they may do or fail to do, in other lines of business, they can always rely on the house of Mr. Thornton as willing to give them the advantage of all declines in the prices of those articles in which he deals, promptly and without solicitation.

BENEFIT TO YOUNG GILHOFFER.
The Young Men's Dramatic Association propose to give an entertainment, on Monday next, for the benefit of young Gilhoff, who was seriously burned while working at the late fire. As he was dependent upon the earnings of his own hands for a support, his long confinement under medical treatment, has left him in a pecuniary straight which almost all of our citizens will gladly assist in relieving. His fearless and unselfish efforts to rescue the property of others from destruction entitle him to a rousing benefit, and we feel assured our citizens will give him such a one.

THE FESTIVAL LAST NIGHT.
The ladies who engineered the strawberry festival, last night, deserve much praise for the skill and labor expended by them in the decoration of the hall. The walls were festooned with tastefully wrought evergreens, and the air was redolent with the outpourings of a hundred of beautiful bouquets. The tables, supervised by young ladies, presented combinations of flowers, fruits and leaves that spoke of the presence of skillful and industrious hands.

The rain fall, in the evening, is to be regretted. It no doubt deterred scores of persons from coming, and thus limited the enjoyment of the occasion to a comparatively small number. The preparations made deserved the presence of hundreds.

MILLINERY AND HAIR GOODS.
Mrs. Addie Buck, between Ninth and Tenth streets, has just returned to Cairo with a beautiful stock of millinery and hair goods; all kinds of hair ornaments, ribbons, nets, etc. She has the latest style of dress hats for ladies' and children's sea sides. Frames of all shapes and colors, and illusion of every shade. Her stock of artificial flowers cannot be surpassed in Cairo. Mrs. Buck will dress hair in any desirable style, having visited the hair dressing establishment in the Southern Hotel and of Madame Campbell, in St. Louis, with an eye to the special benefit of her customers in Cairo.

This is sound advice, especially, since we give it in reference to medicine, and in order to learn which is "the best," let merit be the test. The American market is flooded with all sorts of vile and dangerous nostrums, and thousands of human lives are constantly placed in jeopardy by them. But there are several really invaluable medicinal preparations which every family in the land ought to possess at all times. Foremost among them is Misher's Herb Bitters, which has fully established its claim as the most efficacious compound extant for purifying the blood and eradicating diseases arising from a disordered stomach, liver, kidneys, intestines, etc. It is used in many hospitals, asylums, dispensaries, prisons, etc., and recommended by a large number of acknowledged leaders of the medical profession, and has conquered an immense field solely on the strength of what it can and does do in preventing, checking and curing disease. Everybody should use it for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, and Bilious complaints generally, Kidney diseases, Liver complaints, etc. Jettison that

SOUND ADVICE.
Make it your business, if you need clothing, to go to a reliable store, where you can find all you need, and made in the style you fancy, at such prices as to suit your purse and the times. Antrim's is just such a house. There you will always find a complete and select assortment of clothing, either for men, youths, boys or children, at prices as low as the lowest. Compare his goods and prices, as it will be to your interest.

—"Spalding's Glue" mends everything.

EXCITEMENT IN THE COUNTRY.

FIGHTS AND FEUDS IN UNITY.

We referred, the other day, to a row in the neighborhood of Unity, in this county, in which stout blows were exchanged, hair pulled, eyes gouged and noses flattened, and are now called upon to give the sequel. It seems that a young man named Hodges, was assailed by three young men of the neighborhood, thrown down and held while a fourth individual—a school teacher—castigated him. A female looker-on finally became exasperated, and, with the fury of a tigress, pitched into the teacher, and in a rough and tumble set-to got the better of him.

Hodges being dissatisfied with the result of the conflict to which he was a party, challenged the teacher to a fair, stand-up fist fight. The teacher accepted the challenge, and straightway both parties selected five seconds, and agreed that the fight should come off at Richwood school house, on Thursday evening. School was dismissed, it is said, that the teacher might go into training. Hodges has been knocking a four pound sand bag ever since, and kicking at a mark toofest above his head. A large crowd of spectators and a lively mill are confidently expected by everybody. "Front seats reserved for the ladies."

STREET TAX NOTICE.
Parties delinquent in the payment of Street Tax will save costs by calling at my office, on the corner of Commercial avenue and Fourteenth streets, as I shall proceed forthwith to collect the same by law, without further notice.

TRUTH WILL PREVAIL

"Tho' Satan Sits at the Door, Some Will Be Cured."

We are happy to place before the citizens of Cairo and its vicinity, Dr. Hulse, late of New Albany. He is permanently located in this city, for the purpose of practicing medicine in all its various branches, and will attend to all calls in the city or its vicinity, by day or night. The Doctor has practiced medicine during a period of twenty years, during which time he has had a large share of practice wherever he has lived. He prepares and dispenses all his medicines cured without the use of the knife. Tape-worms expelled by the use of a newly discovered medicine, without any harm to the system. All forms of erysipelas and diseases of the skin cured in the shortest time.

I also keep on hand the Indian Oil, discovered by me while in the Cherokee nation in 1855. For sale at my office, or sent by express to any part of the country.

The oil cures eczema and cramps in five minutes. Headache in three minutes; vertigo in ten minutes; neuralgia in five minutes; rheumatism in one hour; fits in children and adults in a short time. All other aches or pains, not named here, are cured by this oil in the shortest time. Every bottle is labeled with full directions for using it. If it fails to cure what is claimed, it will come back and get your money. Price 50 cents and 75¢ per bottle.
